course no. MAC 718

Friday, July 20, 2012 6:00 – 9:00 p.m.

Saturday, July 21, 2012 9:00 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.

Location: Branch Creek Community Church

100 Main Street, Harleysville, PA

TAKE THIS COURSE TO:

- Understand the theological and legal reasons to be proactive to abuse allegations
- Learn counseling and ministry responses to abuse victims/offenders
- Develop a process for abuse prevention and response policies for your organization to minimize risk

Child sexual abuse is one of the fastest growing forms of child abuse. The Christian community is far from immune. In the last 10 years, there have been an average of 70 child abuse allegations against American churches every week. Child abuse has been both spiritually and financially devastating to the Christian community. 45 out of every 1,000 American children, many of whom are sitting in our churches and attending our Christian schools, are survivors of child abuse.
