

GLOBAL COMMUNITY OF PRACTICE GATHERING

Trauma and Healing Through Generations

The 2018 Global Community of Practice Gathering will explore trauma and healing through generations. You will hear from a wide range of global speakers about how trauma gets passed down from one generation to the next, infuses social structures, and results in unique symptoms calling for unique responses. As always, we will focus on how the Church (that's you!) is helping.

Diane Langberg PhD

Co-chair of the Trauma Healing Advisory Council and American Association of Christian Counselors Board Chair

Phil Monroe PsyD

Taylor Visiting Professor of Counseling & Psychology at Biblical Seminary

Michael Lyles MD

Advisory Council member, psychiatrist, Atlanta, Georgia

Dr. Gus Roman

Pastor Emeritus, Canaan Baptist Church

Carolyn Custis James

Author and Adjunct Faculty Member at Biblical Seminary

Pastor Rod Williams

Founder and Executive Director, Convicted 2 Change

Bethany Williams Ph.D.

Founder and Executive Director, Exile International

13 - 15 MARCH, 2018

American Bible Society
101 N Independence Mall E FL8
Philadelphia, PA 19106-2155

$180

Includes breakfast, lunch, snacks, and materials.

Live Spanish and French translation provided

Or visit globalcop2018.eventbrite.com

THE 2018 COP WILL BE LIVE STREAMED!

Trauma Healing Institute

traumahealinginstitute.org

SCHEDULE

	TUESDAY 13 MARCH	WEDNESDAY 14 MARCH	THURSDAY 15 MARCH
8:30	Worship Devotions and welcome	Worship Words from the Word	Worship and devotions
9:00	Stories From Around The Table	Dr. Gus Roman	Trauma and Healing with Political Leaders Emmanuel Kwizera
9:30	Progress to Date: Alliance news and global progress	How Trauma Left the Plantation Dr. Michael Lyles	Locked Up Before, During, and After Prison Rod Williams Good News Jail & Prison Ministry Joy Stevens and Tony Stella
10:30	Break
11:00	Keynote Address: Living with the Inheritance of Trauma Dr. Diane Langberg and Dr. Phil Monroe	The #metoo and #churchtoo Epidemic Carolyn Custis James Helping Vulnerable Women in Ghana Rev. Charles Adu-Twumasi and Gueneba Bakiono	Breaking the Cycle of Trauma with Teens & Children Dr. Bethany Williams
12:30	Lunch
1:30	The Impact of Trauma Healing on Individuals and Churches: Research results and implications	Voices of Church Leaders <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Mali: Joseph Soriba Camara Suriname: Erle Diera 	Going forward: Living as a Christian in the Midst of Racism Dr. Phil Monroe and Desiree Guyton
3:00	Break
3:30	Orientation and Experienced Tracks	Orientation and Experienced Tracks
5:00	Dismissal

Schedule subject to change.

LODGING

For lodging, please call the Wyndham Philadelphia Historic District Hotel at 1-877-999-3223, which is right next door to our office. Mention that you are part of the American Bible Society COP group to get a discounted rate of $129 plus tax per night.

RAIL DIRECTIONS (SEPTA)

Regional Rail: from Jefferson Station, walk six blocks east on Market St. to the Wells Fargo building

Subway: Market-Frankford Line (eastbound), 5th Street/Independence Mall stop

GPS

401 Market St. Philadelphia, PA

PARKING

Bourse Parking Garage, 400 Ransstead St., early bird special $12.75 (in by 8 a.m. out by 6 p.m.)

<https://www.parkme.com/lot/85982/bourse-garage-philadelphia-pa>